

Proclamation of King Omar bin al-Nu'uman
Concerning the Bath-Attendant's Reward, Year 717

Let it be recorded that the keeper of the hammam, who sheltered and counseled Zau al-Makan in his hour of need and asked no payment for it, shall receive from the royal treasury a reward of one hundred and twenty dinars.

Further, he shall be granted a stall in the market of the Forty Thieves Foundry, free of all guild dues for a term of ten years, in recognition of his service to the royal house.

This proclamation is sealed by order of King Omar bin al-Nu'uman.
